

Job Title: Carpenter Training Instructor

Carpenter Apprentice and Journeyman Skill Upgrading Instructor.

Job Summary

The Northeast Carpenters Apprenticeship Fund is looking to continue its long tradition of training a qualified workforce is prepared to ensure the most challenging construction projects can be completed safely and ahead of schedule. The NCAF has been designed to help create many skilled craftspeople for our evolving workforce. It is essential, in helping others attain a successful career path into the construction industry.

Your role as an instructor, can and will be an extremely influential one. You are the key instrument on which the environment in your classroom and shop rises meet to the expectations of your students. With the support of your Training Director/ Coordinator and staff, you will work as a major part of a team in a fast paced and task-oriented training environment. You will mainly work in our local training center in Hammonton. NJ and travel is a requirement of the job.

Qualifications and Skills

- Candidates must be a current UBC Journeymen in good standing.
- Past Graduate of the Local Apprenticeship Program, recommended
- Minimum of 10 years of well-rounded UBC experience in the respective trade.
- Foreman or superintendent experience, recommended.

- Strong leadership and presentation skills are critical, as well as the ability to connect with students and create an encouraging classroom environment.
- Travel, evening, and weekend work will be required.
- Familiarization with MS Office
- Full COVID Vaccination
- UBC Qualification and Certifications are a plus.
- Expert knowledge in but not limited too Vertical Concrete Systems, Layout Technologies (Total Station), Interior Systems, Scaffolding, OSHA Safety as well as Door & Hardware

Responsibilities and Duties

- Instruction of Apprentices and Journeypersons
- Enforcement and Adherence to all fund rules, regulations & policy
- Facilities maintenance
- Cross train to aid team of instructors
- Positive motivation of all students

All interested applicants should send your resume and cover letter to traininginfo@ncatf.org – Make sure to include your name and job title on the subject line.

Thank you,
Northeast Carpenters Apprenticeship Fund