

Carpenter Training Instructor

Job Summary

The Carpenters NCATF is looking to continue its long tradition of training a qualified workforce. We are prepared to ensure the most challenging construction projects can be completed safely and ahead of schedule. The Carpenters NCATF is designed to help create many skilled craftspeople for our evolving workforce. It is essential, in helping others attain a successful career path into the construction industry.

Your role as an instructor, can and will be extremely influential. You are the key instrument on which the environment in your classroom rises to meet to the expectations of your students. With the support of your Training Director/ Coordinator and staff, you will work as a major part of a team in a fast paced and task-oriented training environment. You will work in our local training centers, mostly in Hammonton New Jersey, however travel is requirement of the job.

Qualifications and Skills

- Candidates must be a current UBC Journeyperson in good standing.
- Past Graduate of the Local Apprenticeship Program
- Minimum of 10 years' well-rounded UBC Carpenter/Piledriver experience in the respective trade.
- Foreman experience, recommended.

- Strong leadership and presentation skills are critical, as well as the ability to connect with students and create an encouraging classroom environment.
- Evening and weekend work will be required upon need
- Familiarization with MS Office and general computer knowledge, necessary
- UBC Carpenter Qualification and Certifications are a plus.
- Expert level knowledge required in, but not limited to: OSHA Site Safety, Interior systems, General Carpentry

Responsibilities and Duties

- Instruction of Apprentices and Journeypersons
- Grading classes and projects
- Daily communication via email
- Enforcement and Adherence to all fund rules, regulations & policy
- Facilities maintenance
- Cross train to aid team of instructors
- Positive motivation of all students

All interested applicants should email their cover letter and resume to:

Pdiaz@ncatf.org or Eschoch@ncatf.org